1. INTRODUCTION

Quality Council of India

QCI is a pioneering experiment of the Government of India in setting up organisations in partnership with the Indian industry. The mandate of QCI is to lead a nationwide quality movement in India by involving all stakeholders for emphasis on adherence to quality standards in all spheres of activities, primarily for promoting and protecting the interests of the nation and its citizens. To achieve this, QCI is playing a pivotal role in propagating, adopting, and adhering to quality standards in all important spheres of activities, including education, healthcare, environment protection, governance, social sectors, infrastructure sector, and other areas of organised activities that have a significant bearing in improving the quality of life and well-being of the citizens of India.

2. SCOPE OF WORK

The building is proposed to be constructed in Sector 44, Gurugram – 122003, Haryana. The building would span an area of 2,100-metre square and consist of three underground levels, one main ground floor, and nine upper levels. The scope of work would include Design, Technical Specifications, and Coordinated Working drawings for the invitation of all Mechanical & Electrical Tenders, periodically supervising the installation if required, preparation of defects lists, and certifying the satisfactory completion of work. The detailed scope of work for the service provider will be as follows:

- I. Designing of the MEP Services.
- II. Preparing Preliminary report and Preliminary cost Estimate.
- III. Preparation of Tender documents, Bill of Quantity, Specification & Tender drawings.
- IV. Tender Evaluation.
- V. Preparation of working drawings.
- VI. Supervise the work at the site from time to time as and when required.
- VII. Check the final installation and quality of work.

2.1 Stage – I Preliminary Design Stage:

- a) Conduct a site visit to investigate and gather relevant data for the building's design and eventual construction if necessary.
- b) Analyse and solve any problems encountered during the site investigation, and comment on the site investigation data and reports.
- c) Determine the QCI's MEP services requirements for the proposed development.
- d) Help QCI to establish its utility and plumbing, fire fighting, and electrical service needs, including specifying the required quantities, target readiness dates, and technical specifications.
- e) Obtain QCI's approval of the mechanical and electrical conceptual design, including electrical installation, lightning protection, telecommunication system, sanitary and plumbing, landscape water reticulation system, security system, building management system, fire protection system, mechanical ventilation system, Internet Fiber.
- f) Propose a suitable and dependable list of materials and equipment schedules that meet the design capacity and cost estimates for client approval.
- g) Identify and shortlist competent vendors/suppliers/subcontractors for various materials/work packages.

- h) Prepare a Preliminary Design Report and Sketches that identify the estimated air-conditioning loads, power and water requirements, basic design concept, budgetary cost estimates, and the cost-effectiveness of different systems using various energy sources, including the payback periods for each system.

2.2 Stage – II Design Drawings Stage:

- a) Development from the approved conceptual design into complete system schematics for the various Services.
- b) Submission of the type of equipment to be used as part of the overall costing estimate for the systems to QCI.
- c) Coordinate the detailed routing of services and layout of fittings and equipment.
- d) Prepare tender drawings and technical specifications according to local codes and engineering practices.
- e) On approval, preparation of design drawings showing substation layout, water tanks size and location, sewage treatment plant, pump room, water distribution and treatment system plant room and low voltage system control room, telephone distribution, garden water distribution, electricity generators, solar system, etc.
- f) Schematic diagrams for power distribution & low voltage system, water supply system, telephones, lightning arrestors, music, sprinklers, fire detectors, and computers, etc.

2.3 Stage – III Tender Stage:

- a) Upon coordination and approval of all design drawings by QCI, preparation of Tender Documents, including Special Conditions of the Contract, Specifications, and Detailed Schedule of Quantities based on our Design Drawings.
- b) Detailed Cost Estimates based on unit rates obtained in recently invited similar tenders.

2.4 Stage – IV Contract Award Stage:

- a) Upon approval by QCI, Inviting Tender from pre-qualified contractors recommended for each speciality system.
- b) Comprehensive comparative analysis of technical bids received.
- c) Preparation of contract agreement and contract document with each selected contractor.

2.5 Stage – V Construction Stage:

- a) Verification of Contractor's Shop Drawings and recommendations for execution.
- b) Frequent site visits to ensure that installation work is as per design and contract agreement.
- c) Assistance in testing and commissioning each system and obtaining test reports from the contractors.
- d) Prepare a rectification list for each contractor's work and ensure that the rectifications are carried out and completed to QCI's satisfaction.
- e) Assistance in obtaining from each contractor As-Installed drawings, a list of recommended spares, and operation and maintenance manuals for the system they installed.

- 4.9. No part of this document, including the Annexures, can be reproduced in any form or by any means, disclosed or distributed to any person without the prior written consent of QCI, except to the extent required for submitting the bid and no more. The information in this document is only disclosed to enable potential service providers to submit a proposal to QCI. This document should not, therefore, be used for any other purpose. This document contains proprietary information furnished for evaluation purposes only; except with the written permission of the QCI, such information may not be published, disclosed, or used for any other purpose. The bidders acknowledge and agree that this document and all portions thereof, including, but not limited to, any copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights relating thereto, shall and at all times remain the sole property of QCI. The title and full ownership rights in the information contained herein and all portions thereof are reserved to and at all times shall remain with QCI. The service provider must agree to take utmost care in protecting the proprietary and confidential nature of the information contained herein.
- 4.10. Conflict of Interest: QCI requires that the service provider provides professional, objective, and impartial advice, and at all times hold the QCI's interests paramount, strictly avoid conflicts with other assignments/jobs or their own corporate interests, and act without any consideration for future work.
- 4.11. Site-Visit: The bidder may visit the site with prior approval of QCI.
- 4.12. The bidders submitting their proposals would be responsible for all the expenses, costs, and risks incurred towards preparing and submitting their proposal, attending any pre-bid meeting, and visiting the site or any other location. QCI shall, in no case, be responsible or liable for any such costs whatsoever, regardless of the outcome of the process.
- 4.13. Bid Validity: The bid submitted by the service provider shall remain valid for a period of 90 days after the closing date (deadline) for the submission of proposals prescribed in this document. During the evaluation, QCI may, at its discretion, ask the respondents for clarifications on their proposals. The bidders are required to respond within the time frame prescribed by QCI.
- 4.14. Ownership Rights: Ownership of all new artefacts (data, reports, presentations, and other publications) generated during the assignment or otherwise concerning the assignment will rest with QCI, and it will have the right to resell/ implement the same with any other organisation.
- 4.15. Fraud/ Corruption: QCI requires that the bidders participating in the process adhere to the highest ethical standards, both during the selection process and throughout the execution of the contract. In pursuance of this policy, QCI defines, for the purpose of this paragraph, the terms set forth as applicable to both parties:
- 4.15.1. "corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value (whether in cash or kind) to influence the action of a public official in the selection process or contract execution.
 - 4.15.2. "fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation or omission of facts to influence a selection process or the execution of a Contract.

- 4.15.3. "collusive practices" means a scheme or arrangement between two or more bidders with or without the knowledge of QCI, designed to establish prices at artificial, non-competitive levels.
- 4.15.4. "coercive practices" means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons or their property to influence their participation in a procurement process or affect the execution of a Contract. QCI will reject a proposal for award if it comes to know that the bidder recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for the contract in question; and
- 4.15.5. QCI will terminate the contract, if already awarded, and will declare the bidder ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stipulated time, to be awarded a Contract if at any time it determines that the bidder has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for, or in executing, a Contract.

4.16. Termination of Contract

4.16.1. Termination for Default

QCI reserves the right to terminate / short close the contract, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by giving 15 days' notice if the service provider fails to perform any obligation(s) under the contract and if the service provider, does not cure their failure within a period of 7 days (or more extended period as QCI may authorise in writing) after receipt of the default notice from QCI.

4.16.2. Termination for Insolvency

QCI may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice without compensation to the service provider if the service provider becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to QCI.

4.16.3. Termination for Convenience

QCI may, by written notice sent to the service provider, terminate the contract, in whole or part, at any time for its convenience. However, the payment shall be released to the extent to which the performance of work executed as determined by the service provider till the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

- 4.16.4. The service provider may terminate this contract, or any particular Services, by giving 15 days written notice to QCI if the service provider reasonably determines that the service provider can no longer provide the Services in accordance with applicable law or professional obligations.

- 4.17. Language: The proposal should be filled by the bidders in the English language only. If any supporting documents submitted are in any language other than English, translation of the same in English is to be duly attested by the Bidders. For purposes of interpretation of the documents, the English translation shall govern. All correspondence and documents relating to the proposal exchanged by the bidder and QCI shall also be written in English.

- 4.18. Companies' Personnel: The service provider shall employ and provide at its own cost qualified and experienced consultants as required to carry out the Services. Their salaries, claims, insurance, damages, compensation, travel, etc., will be the service provider's liability, and QCI will in no way be responsible for any such claims/ damages.

4.19. Written Undertaking: QCI may at any time require the service provider and its employees/advisors/professionals, to whom confidential information may be disclosed in the course of execution of the contract, to give a written undertaking in the form of a deed reasonably accepted to QCI and relating to the use and non-disclosure of the confidential information relating to QCI or any Government Department or relating to any Ministry and or such other information that QCI suggests to be confidential. Upon receiving a request aforesaid, the service provider must promptly arrange for all such undertakings to be given to QCI.

4.20. Knowledge Transfer: Subject to any qualification or provision to the contrary in the statement of work, the service provider must provide the following assistance to the QCI on termination or expiration of this contract:

Transferring or providing access to the QCI to all information stored by whatever means held by the service provider or under the control of the service provider in connection with this contract; and making Specified Personnel/employees and service provider's personnel available for discussions with the QCI as may be required. The time, length, and subject of these discussions will be at the sole discretion of the QCI, provided that any matter discussed is not considered to reveal any 'commercial-in-confidence' information of the service provider.

4.21. Force Majeure: Neither party shall be held responsible for non-fulfilment of their respective obligations due to the exigency of one or more of the force majeure events such as but not limited to Acts of God, war, floods, earthquakes, strikes, lockouts, epidemics, pandemics, riots, civil commotion etc., provided on the occurrence and cessation of any such events. The affected party thereby shall give notice in writing to the other party within one week of such occurrence or cessation. If the force majeure conditions continue beyond six months, the parties may then mutually decide about the future course of action.

Force Majeure shall not include

- i. any event which is caused by the negligence or intentional action of a Party or by or of such party's agents or employees, nor
- ii. any event which a diligent Party could reasonably have been expected both to take into account at the time of the signing of the contract and avoid or overcome with utmost persistent effort in the carrying out of its obligations hereunder.
- iii. Insufficiency of funds or manpower or inability to make any payment required for the execution of services under this contract.

4.22. Indemnity: The service provider undertakes to indemnify QCI from any losses that QCI may incur due to any deficiency in services rendered by the service provider or any instance of corruption or improper payment.

4.23. Maintenance of Confidentiality: The service provider must not divulge any confidential information and assure that reasonable steps are undertaken to provide for the safe custody of any and all confidential information in its possession, and to prevent unauthorised access thereto or use thereof. Without the prior written consent of QCI, the service provider must not disclose any confidential information of QCI or any government department or relating to any ministry or any other party. In giving written consent to the disclosure of confidential information, QCI may impose such conditions as it deems fit, and the service provider must comply with these conditions. The confidentiality clause shall continue for a longer period than one year after the termination of the contract or contract expiry period.

The service provider shall not, without the consent in writing of QCI, publish any article or photograph in any form relating to the project.

- 4.24. Taxes & Duties: The service provider shall be liable to pay all direct and indirect taxes, duties, fees and other impositions levied under the laws of India.
- 4.25. All the drawings shall be finalised to the entire satisfaction of the department after and with due interaction with the committee of officials (constituted by QCI)
- 4.26. QCI reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, to annul the entire bid process or reject all bids at any time before the contract award without thereby incurring any liability to the affected service providers or any obligation to inform the affected service providers of the grounds for such decision. The bidder is liable to be rejected if:
- 4.26.1. Application not in prescribed forms or not containing all required details;
 - 4.26.2. Application not properly sealed and signed as per requirements;
 - 4.26.3. Application received after the expiry of due date and time;
 - 4.26.4. Missing of any supporting document(s) with the bid.
 - 4.26.5. Bidder has made misleading or false representations in the forms, statements and attachments submitted as proof of the eligibility requirements.
 - 4.26.6. Bidder has exhibited a record of poor performance, such as abandoning works, not properly completing the contractual obligations, inordinately delaying completion or financial failures, etc., in any project in the preceding three years.
 - 4.26.7. Bidder has submitted a proposal that is not accompanied by required documentation or is non-responsive and failed to provide clarifications related thereto when sought.
 - 4.26.8. Bidder has submitted more than one proposal.
 - 4.26.9. Bidder was declared ineligible by the Government of India/State/UT Government for corrupt and fraudulent practices.
 - 4.26.10. The bidder has made any alteration/changes in the bid after the closing time and date. Unsolicited correspondence from the bidder will not be entertained.
- 4.27. Amendments to RFP: At any time before the last date for receipt of applications, QCI may, for any reason, whether at its initiative or in response to a clarification requested by a prospective applicant, modify the RFP document by an amendment. To provide prospective applicants with reasonable time to consider the proposed amendments while preparing their proposals, QCI may, at its discretion, extend the last date for the receipt of proposals or make other changes in the requirements set out in the RFP. Any such amendment shall be communicated to the service providers.
- 4.28. Disclaimer: QCI reserves the right
- i. To terminate the RFP process at any time without assigning any reasons thereof;
 - ii. To reject any/all applications without assigning any reasons thereof;
 - iii. To relax or waive any of the conditions stipulated in this document as deemed necessary in the best interest of QCI without assigning any reasons thereof;
 - iv. To include any other item in the scope of work at any time after consultation with bidders or otherwise.
